destruction, as well as damage and accidental loss, and ensure that the data stored cannot be corrupted or rendered inaccessible due to any changes in or modification to the applied technique.

The information systems of our Company and our partners are both protected from computer-assisted fraud, computer viruses, hacking and distributed denial-of-service attacks. Moreover, the operator ensures security by means of server-level and application-level security procedures. Data are backed up on a daily basis. Our company takes all possible measures to prevent personal data breaches and in the event of a data breach it takes action immediately to minimise the risks and eliminate the damages.

7. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROCESSING

Pursuant to Article 8 of the Law of Ukraine On Personal Data Protection, data subjects may request from the owner access to, rectification or deletion of their personal data as well as the restriction of processing; moreover, they have the right to withdraw their consent or object to the processing.

In the event of a violation of their rights defined in the Law of Ukraine On Personal Data Protection, data subjects may lodge a complaint with the Owner at the contact details specified in Clauses 1 and 3.

In accordance with Article 16 of the Law of Ukraine On Personal Data Protection, the Company shall comply with the data subject's request to exercise his or her rights without undue delay, but not later than one month from the date of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests. The Company shall inform the data subject of the extension of the deadline within one month of receipt of the request, stating the reasons for the delay.

Where the data subject makes the request by electronic form means, the response shall also be provided by electronic means where possible, unless requested otherwise by the data subject, with the requested form specifically indicated in his or her request.

7.1. RIGHT OF ACCESS

The data subject shall have the right to request from the Company—using the contact details provided in this Notice—information as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, to be informed as to:

- which personal data are processed on what legal basis, for what processing purposes and for how long;
- to whom, when, pursuant to which legislation and to which personal data it has provided access to or to whom it has transmitted personal data, and from which source the personal data have been obtained;
- whether it applies automated decision-making and if so, the logic involved, including profiling.

Access to data at the data subject's request constituting the subject of processing is free of charge

In order to comply with data security requirements and to protect the rights of the data subject, the Company is required to confirm the identity of the data subject or the identity of the person wishing to exercise the right of access; consequently, the provision of information or access to the data, or the issue of a copy of the data is subject to the identification of the data subject.

7.2. RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION

Via the contact details provided in this Notice, data subjects may request the Company in writing to modify or rectify their personal data, provided that they can credibly confirm the accuracy of the rectified data. If they send the request to the Company by electronic means, the Company shall also respond electronically. If they wish to receive the response in any other way, they need to indicate that in the request.

7.3. RIGHT TO RESTRICTION (BLOCKING) OF PROCESSING

Via the contact details provided in this Notice, data subjects may request that the Company restrict the processing of their personal data (by clearly marking the processing operation as restricted and by ensuring that all other data are processed separately) if:

- they contest the accuracy of their personal data (in which case the Company shall restrict processing for the duration of verifying the accuracy of the personal data);
- they believe that the processing is unlawful, but the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- the owner no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
- the data subject objects to the processing (in which case the restriction shall be in place for the period of verifying whether the legitimate grounds of the owner override those of the data subject).

7.4. RIGHT TO DELETION OR DESTRUCTION (“RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN”)

Data subjects may request in writing via the contact details provided in this Notice that the Company delete or destruct their personal data.

The Company shall be required to erase your personal data without undue delay where any one of the following grounds applies:

- expiration of the data storage period determined by the personal data subject's consent to the processing of this data or by law
 - termination of the legal relationship between the personal data subject and owner or manager, unless otherwise provided for by law;
 - entry into force of a court decision on personal data removal or destruction;
 - the personal data have been unlawfully processed
- and others grounds provided by current legislation.

8. RIGHT TO JUDICIAL REMEDY

If data subjects believe that the data protection rules in effect have been infringed by the Company as a result of the processing of their personal data, they may lodge a complaint with the Authorised Human Rights Representative of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine in the field of personal data protection (address: 01008, Kyiv, str. Instytutska, 21/8; Phone: 0800-50-17-20, +38044-299-74-08; E-mail: hotline@ombudsman.gov.ua).

The data subject may bring the case to the court. A lawsuit may also be brought against the Owner for the violation of the rules applicable to the processing of personal data.
